This eight-week duration program offers participants the opportunity to contribute their ideas and skills to the in established and reputable companies in various sectors. The areas covered are Marketing, Finance, Human Resource Management, Operations, Economy and Strategy. Instructors primarily guide the group, push participants to develop and defend arguments and make decisions. IIM’s PGP-FABM program Ahmedabad wins No.1 spot The Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ahmedabad has been ranked No.1 globally for the year 2018 for its Graduate Program in Food and Agribusiness Management (PGP-FABM). Skill Development Courses These included courses on a range of psychometric instruments, analysis and industry projects for skill development for functional areas of HR such as recruitment and selection, compensation, learning and development, and performance evaluation. Something went wrong. “I didn’t even know that IIMA’s PGP-FABM is a specialized program in management education in the agri-food sector and that with training in agriculture and the allied education sector, we have a good opportunity to get into the program”, said Jagan Jyoti Barua, the university’s Secretary General and student 4Âo year undergraduate with interest in a management career in the tea industry. Participants are encouraged to select courses in specific areas such as conflict analysis, negotiation and management, organizational development and change, talent management, and competency and leadership-based approaches. He highlighted the high demand for skilled managers in this sector who can work along the entire agri-food value chain and ensure high profits as well as redistribution among farmers. Guest lectures and workshops enrich your learning even more. The program started from the academic year 2018. In the second year elective courses the participants understand better the Functional and fellow fields of HR. The first year also presents the participants psychometric instruments, behavioral laboratories, behavior, and assessment centers ³ n. The program has been ranked number one by a ranking agency based in ParÃs³ Eduniversal Ã¢ Â Â specialized in higher ³ education. IIM Indore offers a different program that helps build a ³ value proposition: First-year course work with PGP participants in Indore to enable participants to acquire strong business rationalities and interact with peers who are being trained to become general managers A strong emphasis on psychomotor instruments, behavioral laboratories and assessment centers ³ familiarize participants with innovations and best practices in behavioral sciences A strong emphasis on anal practice to enable participants to connect human resources and business issues in evidence-based ways A strong emphasis on industry projects for participants to acquire skills and competencies opportunities to deepen into the social theory and philosophy ofÃa based on HR premises and other business issues cases, projects, simulations, computer-assisted instructions, group discussions, conferences, seminars, presentations of participants and conferences of industry and government guest speakers. Mixing of theory and practice The course blends theory and practice by integrating industry projects with course work. More than 200 students attended the event and interacted with faculty and staff. Participants will be introduced into techniques through which they will be able to deploy an ³ anal orientation in the understanding of human behavior in organizations and the ³ of evidence-based interventions. interventions.
